We are hoping to spend the day at Peckham Rye Park on Thursday 27th June as part of our outdoor learning. A separate letter will follow around this.

PE Day

Please ensure that your child has the correct PE kit: white polo shirt; black/navy jogging bottoms, and trainers. Please send children to school in their PE kit on these days.

Our Learning Journey

As you will see above, Year 3 will be performing an assembly to parents (or grandparents etc if you can't be there), which will be based on our learning about India. It will be in the hall and we expect it to run for approximately 20 minutes. Please come if you can!

Anglo Saxons

This half term, our topic is the Anglo Saxons. Clearly this has a history focus! Our key line of enquiry links to the Sutton Hoo treasure and what archaeologists have been able to deduce from the finds within the burial site.

Science

The focus is on magnets and forces and will involve many practical investigations.

English

Reading

Our whole class reading book this half term is Planet Omar, Accidental Trouble Magnet by Zanib Mian, featuring a Muslim boy with a huge imagination.

Writing

The key focus will be on using suspense in writing. This narrative unit will be based around 'Wolves in the Walls' by Neil Gaiman and excerpts from the first Toy Story film. The children will draw on previous learning, including similes and metaphors, alliteration, dialogue, as well as exploring short, sharp sentences and repetition for dramatic effect.

Maths

Our maths learning this half term includes:

Measurement

- Fractions
- Time
- Geometry - Properties of Shape

Our times tables fluency focus will be 3 x tables and division facts.

Your child's maths home learning will continue to provide a window into the detail of the aspects and methods covered in lessons.
